- 3.6. API – third party services. As part of the Services provided, Exponea may also provide certain services aimed at connecting the Customer to the services of other providers (such as e-mail or SMS provided by providers of messaging platforms). explicitly specified otherwise in an Order Form, Exponea only provides API services for connecting these third-party services to the Services provided by Exponea and under the Terms of use for the third party integrations available at https://exponea.com/terms-of-service/terms_of_use_for_third_party_intergrations.pdf.

4. PRICING POLICY, PAYMENT TERMS AND TAXES

- 4.1. Fees. The Customer shall pay all Fees specified in the Order Form. Except as otherwise specified in the Agreement or in an Order Form, (a) the Fees are based on the respective available Event capacities purchased for the Services and not on actual usage; and (b) unless agreed otherwise in a specific case, payment obligations are non-cancellable and the Fees paid are non-refundable. Fees for connections to messaging Services are calculated on the basis of actual usage. Unless agreed otherwise, the Fees are calculated for monthly periods based on the calendar months. If the cooperation does not contain the whole calendar month, the fee for the respective month shall be calculated proportionally.
- 4.2. Payment terms. All amounts under the Agreement shall be prepaid on an annual basis in advance based on invoice issued, electronically or otherwise, by Exponea or its Affiliate no later than fourteen (14) days from the Effective Date or from start of any renewal term based on clause 11.1 hereof. The payment shall be due in full within fourteen (14) days of the date of the applicable invoice. The Customer hereby authorizes to withdraw the respective funds from a payment instrument saved and pre-authorized in the Customer’s account pursuant to clause 3.2 of this General Terms and Condition; for the avoidance of doubt, the Customer hereby authorises Exponea or its payment providers to charge the payment instrument. In such case, Exponea shall issue a standard invoice promptly after the payment is credited to the Exponea bank account. All amounts are payable in the currency specified in the Order Form. Any amounts not paid when due shall accrue default interest at the rate of 0.1% per day. If such amount would exceed maximum default interest possible under the applicable law, then the Customer shall be obliged to pay only such maximum default interest.
- 4.3. Taxes. Unless otherwise stated, the Fees do not include any taxes, levies, duties or similar governmental assessments of any nature, including but not limited to value-added, goods and services, harmonised, sales, use or withholding taxes, assessable by any local, state, provincial, federal or foreign jurisdiction (“Taxes”). The Customer is responsible for paying all Taxes associated with its purchases pursuant to the Agreement. If Exponea has a legal obligation to pay or collect Taxes for which Customer is responsible under this paragraph, the appropriate amount shall be invoiced to and paid by the Customer, unless the Customer provides Exponea with a valid tax exemption certificate authorised by the appropriate taxing authority.

5. CONFIDENTIALITY

5.1. Neither Party will use any Confidential Information of the disclosing party except as necessary to exercise its rights or perform its obligations pursuant to the Agreement or as expressly authorised in writing by the other Party. Each Party shall use the same degree of care to protect the disclosing party’s Confidential Information as it uses to protect its own Confidential Information of like nature, but in no circumstances shall each Party use less than reasonable care. Neither Party shall disclose the other Party’s Confidential Information to any person or entity other than its officers, employees, consultants and legal advisors who need access to such Confidential Information in order to effect the intent of the Agreement and who have entered into confidentiality agreements as least as restrictive as the requirements in this clause.

6. DELIVERY AND WARRANTY

6.1. Access/Delivery of the Services. Exponea shall provide the Services in the scope agreed in an Order Form by creating and/or authorising an already existing Account for the Customer. In principle, the Subscription Services shall be made available (delivered) after the payment is credited to Exponea’s bank account.

6.2. No Warranty. Unless stipulated otherwise in any relevant Agreement, TO THE FULL EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE SERVICES AND EXPONEA’S CONTENT ARE PROVIDED “AS IS,” AND “AS AVAILABLE” WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND. WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, WE EXPLICITLY DISCLAIM ALL EXPRESS AND IMPLIED, STATUTORY, OR OTHERWISE CONDITIONS, REPRESENTATIONS, AND WARRANTIES INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT. EXPONEA MAKES NO EXPRESS REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES WITH REGARD TO THE SITE, THE SERVICES, OR ANY ACTIVITIES OR ITEMS RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE OTHER TERMS. We make no warranty that the Services or Exponea will meet your requirements or be available on an uninterrupted, secure, virus-free or error-free basis. We make no warranty regarding the quality, accuracy, timeliness, truthfulness, completeness or reliability of the Services or any Exponea. You acknowledge and agree that if you rely on any Exponea or the Services, you do so solely at your own risk.

7. LIABILITY

7.1. Force majeure. Exponea shall not be liable for any damages in connection with a Customer’s invalid request or as a result of force majeure. Exponea shall also not be liable to Customer for a third party breach, including any malfunction of underlying hardware platforms.

7.2. Relief Events. Where Exponea’s provision of any Service, or performance of any obligation set out herein, is prevented as a direct or indirect result of any act or omission by the Customer (a “Relief Event”) then Exponea shall be granted an extension to all affected deadlines equal to the length of delay caused by the relevant Relief Event.

- 7.3. Information duty. The Customer shall without any undue delay inform Exponea about the occurrence of any event that may affect the due fulfilment of the obligation set out herein and shall undertake its best endeavours to cooperate with Exponea to overcome such events.
- 7.4. Liability limitation. NEITHER EXPONEA, ITS AFFILIATES, CONTRACTORS, NOR ANY OTHER PARTY INVOLVED IN CREATING, PRODUCING, OR DELIVERING THE SERVICES WILL BE LIABLE FOR ANY INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, INDIRECT COSTS OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO LOST PROFITS, LITIGATION COSTS, LOSS OF DATA OR GOODWILL OR PRODUCTION, OR BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES, OR REPUTATION, SERVICE INTERRUPTION, COMPUTER DAMAGE OR SYSTEM FAILURE OR THE COST OF SUBSTITUTE SERVICES ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THESE TERMS OR FROM THE USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE THE SERVICES, WHETHER BASED ON WARRANTY, CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), OR ANY OTHER LEGAL THEORY, AND WHETHER OR NOT EXPONEA HAS BEEN INFORMED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE, EVEN IF A LIMITED REMEDY SET FORTH HEREIN IS FOUND TO HAVE FAILED OF ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE. In no event shall Exponea be liable to the Customer for more than greater of the amount of any actual direct damages up to the amount paid by the Customer hereunder for the Services giving rise to liability in the twelve (12) months preceding the first incident from which the liability arose. The Parties agree that this clause represents a reasonable allocation of risks. SOME JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW THE EXCLUSION OR LIMITATION OF LIABILITY FOR CONSEQUENTIAL OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES, SO THE ABOVE LIMITATION MAY NOT APPLY TO CUSTOMER. HOWEVER, IN THESE JURISDICTIONS, THE FOREGOING EXCLUSIONS AND LIMITATIONS WILL BE ENFORCED TO THE GREATEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

8. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND DATA PROTECTION

- 8.1. Intellectual Property. Exponea, and its suppliers and/or licensors if applicable, shall retain all rights (including but not limited to all patent rights, trademark rights, copyright, trade secrets and any other intellectual property rights) in and to the Services and any Guides. The Customer agrees that only Exponea (or its Affiliates) shall have the right to enhance or otherwise modify the Services. If the Customer provides Exponea with any reports of defects and/or suggests modifications (“Report”), Exponea shall have the right to use such Report, including incorporating such Report into its Services or other software products, without any obligation to the Customer. Unless specifically agreed otherwise in writing, Exponea reserves all rights and grants the Customer no licences of any kind, whether by implication or otherwise. Exponea shall own and retain all right, title and interest in and to (a) the Services and all improvements, enhancements or modifications thereto; (b) any software, applications, inventions or other technology developed in connection with implementation Services or support by Exponea; and (c) information derived from aggregated and anonymised data, and (d) all intellectual property rights related to any of the foregoing.
- 8.2. Data protection. The Data protection is governed by the specific Data Processing Addendum which forms the integral part of the Agreement. The Data Processing Addendum is available at https://exponea.com/terms-of-service/data_processing_adendum.pdf
- 8.3. Artificial intelligence services. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement, Exponea shall have the right to collect and analyse data and other information relating to the provision, use and performance of various aspects of the Services and related systems and technologies (i.e. anonymized aggregate information derived from Customer Data), and Exponea will be free (during and after the term hereof) to (i) use such information and data to improve and enhance the Services and all capabilities of artificial intelligence that will increase the performance and effectiveness of the Customers’ campaigns or for other development, diagnostic and corrective purposes in connection with the Services and other Exponea’s offerings (or offering of its Affiliates), and (ii) make such data available in the aggregated and anonymized form, i.e. via so-called anonymized industry standard trends.

- 8.4. COPPA. Protecting the privacy of children is especially important. The US Children’s Online Privacy and Protection Act (“COPPA”) requires that online service providers obtain parental consent before they knowingly collect personally identifiable information online from children in the United States of America who are under 13. Exponea respect the role of parents or guardians in the monitoring of their children’s online activities. Accordingly, Exponea limits its collection of personal information from children to no more than is reasonably necessary to participate in the Services and to improve it going forward. Exponea does not collect any Personal Data from children other than as set out in the Agreement. Exponea reserves the right to refuse to process data supplied by Customer that is in violation of this Clause 3.9.
- 8.5. Third Party Use of Customer Data. Unless otherwise agreed all data provided to Exponea by Customer is confidential and Exponea will not use any data for any other purposes than to exercise its rights and perform its obligations in connection with conducting of the Services. Customer acknowledges that in order to properly carry out the Service, information given to Exponea by Customer will be made available to third parties in order to enable the performance of the Services. Customer acknowledges that such third parties are not representatives of Exponea. The manner in which any Customer Data may be used is covered by the Exponea privacy policy, found at <https://exponea.com/privacy-policy/>.

9. REPRESENTATION, WARRANTIES AND RESTRICTIONS

- 9.1. General. Each Party represents and warrants to the other Party that: (a) such Party is duly incorporated and validly existing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation; and the execution, delivery and performance of the Agreement constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of such Party; and (b) such Party has all requisite corporate power and financial capacity, and authority to execute, deliver, and perform its obligations under the Agreement.
- 9.2. Restrictions. The Customer shall not (and shall not authorise any third party to): (a) modify, translate, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble or create any derivative works based on the Services, except to the extent that enforcement of the foregoing restrictions is prohibited by applicable Legislation; (b) circumvent any user limits, Usage Limitations, Capacity Limitations or other timing, use or functionality restrictions built into the Services; (c) remove any proprietary notices, labels, or marks from the Services; (d) frame or mirror any content forming part of the Services; (e) access the Services in order to (i) build a competitive product or service, or (ii) copy any ideas, modules, functions, or graphics of the Services; (f) register, directly or indirectly make it possible to register or anyhow support the third party registration of trademarks, business names or other designations of Exponea (or related or similar business names or other designations); or (g) use Exponea’s intellectual property rights (or any related or similar logos and/or trademarks of Exponea) for its benefit, e.g., by combination of Exponea logos and/or trademarks with its own business name and/or company name or its own products or services. In case the Customer exceeds the Capacity Limitations or Usage Limitations, Exponea may work with the Customer to seek to reduce the usage so that it conforms to the applicable limit. If, notwithstanding such efforts, the Customer is unable or unwilling to abide by a contractual usage limit, the Customer will execute an Order Form for additional quantities of the applicable Services promptly upon request of Exponea, and/or pay any invoice for excess usage in accordance Section 4 of this General Terms and Conditions.

10. COMMUNICATION AND DELIVERY

- 10.1. Addresses of the Customer. For the purposes of delivery, Exponea has been notified of the Customer’s mail and e-mail addresses identified within its registration process or as may be amended within the Customer's profile in its Account. The Customer agrees that any communication from Exponea with respect to the Agreement may be delivered electronically to the Customer's Account or to the e-mail address specified therein.

10.2. Customer references. Exponea shall be entitled to publicly refer to the Customer as a user of the Services.

11. TERM, SUSPENSION AND TERMINATION

11.1 Term. The Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue in effect unless it expires or is terminated ("Term"). The Term of each subscription shall be as specified in the applicable Order Form or if not specified, for a period of one (1) year. For the avoidance of doubt, if a trial version pursuant to clause 3.3 applies to the respective subscription, such subscription period will commence immediately after the expiration of the 14-days trial version. Except as otherwise specified in an Order Form, subscriptions will automatically renew for additional periods equal to the expiring subscription term or of one (1) year (whichever is shorter), unless either Party gives the other Party notice of non-renewal at least thirty (30) days before the end of the relevant subscription Term. Except as expressly provided in the applicable Order Form, renewal of promotional or one-time priced subscriptions will be subject to the consent of Exponea.

11.2 Suspension and termination for non-payment. If any amount owed by the Customer under this or any other agreement for the Services is overdue, Exponea will send a notification to the Customer via email or via In-App. Should the Customer fail to pay up the owed amount within thirty (30) or more days after the due date of the respective invoice, Exponea may, without limiting its other rights and remedies, suspend the provision of the Services to the Customer until such amounts are paid in full. The suspension may take several forms: (i) soft-lock or (ii) hard-lock of the Customer's Account. When the Account is soft-locked, the Customer does not have access to the Account, however, the data will be processed. When the Account is hard-locked, the Customer does not have access to the Account, and the data will not be processed. If, following the process pursuant to this clause 11.2, the respective payment is not paid in full, Exponea may, at its sole and exclusive discretion, terminate the Agreement.

11.3 Termination for change of General Terms and Conditions. If the Customer does not agree with a new version of the General Terms and Conditions communicated to the Customer pursuant to the clause 13.8 hereof and such change to the General Terms and Conditions constitutes the substantial deprecation of the Services, the Customer may terminate the Agreement in respect to the particular deprecated part of the Services by delivering a termination notice to Exponea within thirty (30) days after the effective date of such new version of General Terms and Conditions. For the avoidance of doubt, the following situations shall be considered as substantial deprecation of the Services: (i) The feature has been replaced by a less powerful alternative feature; (ii) a future version of the Exponea tool will make major structural changes, making it impossible (or impractical) to support older features. In such case, the Agreement is terminated in respect to the particular part of the Services at the end of the thirty (30) day period provided for the delivery of the termination notice. In case the Fees are stipulated in the manner that it cannot be divided into parts, the Parties undertake to negotiate about alternative services, that Exponea can offer to the Customer instead of the deprecated part. If no termination notice of the Customer is served and delivered to Exponea within the thirty (30) day deadline, the Customer is deemed to have accepted the new version of the General Terms and Conditions. After expiry of this deadline, the Customer is not entitled to terminate the Agreement for the reason specified in this clause 11.3.

11.4 Termination. The Agreement may, in addition to the reasons stipulated in clauses 11.2 and 11.3, be terminated as follows: (a) if either Party breaches any material term or condition of the Agreement and fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) days after receiving notice of the breach, the non-breaching Party may terminate the Agreement on notice at any time following the end of such thirty (30) day period; (b) if either Party becomes insolvent on the basis of a respective court order, then the other Party may terminate the Agreement immediately upon notice; (c) if the Customer breaches the Code of Conduct published on www.exponea.com, Exponea may terminate the Agreement immediately upon notice; or (d) if change of control in Customer occurs, the Customer shall inform Exponea within thirty (30) days, and Exponea may terminate the Agreement within additional thirty (30) days after the information about the change of control is delivered. In case the Customer does not inform Exponea about the occurrence of the change of control, and Exponea finds out independently, Exponea may terminate the Agreement within thirty (30) days after it gets familiar with the change of control. For the avoidance of doubts, neither Party is entitled to terminate this Agreement without cause. If the Customer sends a termination notice to Exponea prior to expiration of the relevant term (other than a non-renewal notice and notice for breach), such action shall constitute a breach of terms of this Agreement by the Customer. In such case Exponea is entitled (i) to cease the providing of Services from the first day of the month immediately following the month in which the termination notice was delivered to Exponea; and (ii) to require a payment (contractual penalty) in the amount corresponding to the one half (1/2) of the Subscription Fee for the remainder period to the end of the respective subscription term payable immediately upon request of Exponea. Upon expiration or termination of the Agreement, the Customer shall cease all use of the Services, and shall promptly return all copies of the Guides to Exponea or otherwise destroy those copies and provide assurances (signed by an officer of the Customer) to Exponea that it has done so if requested by Exponea.

11.5 Suspension for exceeding the Event Capacity. In the event the Customer (i) exceeds the Event Capacity ordered via respective Order Form for more than 50 % and (ii) does not submit additional Order Form for such exceeding Event Capacity by itself or on the request of Exponea, Exponea shall be entitled to suspend the Services without any further notice.

11.6 Return of data. Upon the request of the Customer that is made (i) any time during the Term, or (ii) within thirty (30) days after the effective date of termination or the expiration of the Agreement, Exponea will make such Customer Data available to the Customer in a file for download in (.json) format together with any attachments in their native format. After such thirty (30) day period, Exponea shall have no obligation to maintain or provide any such Customer Data and may thereafter, unless legally prohibited from doing so, delete all such Customer Data in Exponea's systems, under Exponea's control or otherwise in Exponea's possession. Upon instruction of the Customer, Exponea shall, unless and to the extent legally prohibited from doing so, (i) delete all Customer Data in Exponea's system, which were requested by the Customer, in accordance with applicable law within commercially reasonable time; and (ii) instruct all subcontractors listed at https://exponea.com/terms-of-service/list_of_sub-processors_and_sub-contractors.pdf, if applicable in the case of the respective Customer to delete Customer Data from the subcontractor's system. The Customer acknowledges that for the hosting services, the Sub-processors & Webhosting Policy available at https://exponea.com/terms-of-service/sub-processors_and_webhosting_policy.pdf applies. For the avoidance of doubt, the Customer acknowledges that this clause 11.6 shall not apply to the following: (a) Customer Data in logs; (b) aggregated data and (c) data stored for the statistical purposes.

12 SPECIFIC CONDITIONS FOR CONSULTING AND OTHER TAILORED SERVICES

12.1 Applicability. Apart from the provision of the Subscription Services, Exponea may, on the basis of a mutual agreement with the Customer, also provide other Services to the Customer. Such Services may include Exponea setup consulting, business planning, training, other consulting (either pre-paid or on-demand), implementation or maintenance, and testing. The specific terms and conditions set out in this clause 12 shall apply to these Services.

12.2 Ordering Services. Any tailored Services (including any deliverables) to be provided by Exponea to the Customer must be agreed to by both Parties by virtue of an Order Form. Consulting services may be ordered by the Customer in different modes: (a) consulting required for the proper onboarding of the Customer to other Services of the Customer (“Setup”); (b) pre-paid consulting services for more beneficial hourly rates; and (c) standard consulting services.

12.3 Manner. Exponea shall provide the Services and develop any related deliverables for the Customer described in the respective Order Form agreed by the Parties. Exponea shall provide these Services in a reasonable, professional manner in keeping with professional standards and practices. Unless agreed otherwise in the respective Order Form, Exponea shall be entitled to, at its sole discretion, determine the methods and means for performing the Services and developing any related deliverables.

12.4 Subcontractors. The Customer undertakes and agrees that Exponea may utilise the services of independent consultants (“Subcontractors”) from time to time to perform, or to assist Exponea in performing, the Services and develop the deliverables. Personnel of Exponea and of the Subcontractors shall remain under the control of Exponea.

12.5 Cooperation. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that performance of the Services is heavily dependent on the information and responses to be provided by the Customer. Accordingly, in addition to any specific responsibilities set out in the respective Order Form, the Customer shall: (a) provide the appropriate and necessary resources, and timely and accurate information and documentation, as reasonably required by Exponea; (b) carry out reviews and respond to requests for approval and information on a timely basis; and (c) make available to Exponea all equipment, material, information, data, network access and/or facilities that Exponea may reasonably require to carry out its obligations. The Customer acknowledges that any delay on its part in the performance of its obligations may have an impact on Exponea’s performance of its activities under the Agreement or under any Order Form, and Exponea shall not be liable for any delay to the extent caused by Customer’s failure to fulfil any of its requirements under the Agreement or any Order Form.

12.6 Fees and Payment for Tailored Services. The Customer shall pay the Fees as agreed in the respective Order Form, either on a time spent basis (e.g. on-demand consulting) or on a fixed fee basis (e.g. set-up of Exponea). The Parties acknowledge that any pre-paid Services shall not be reimbursed, even if not utilised by the Customer, due to their typically lower price per unit.
